HUNGER

A total of 750,000 Gulf Coast residents live in poverty, half of those residents are children. And, according to hunger relief organizations, the working, terminally ill and senior citizens living on fixed incomes, are also increasingly experiencing hunger in this country. People continue to seek emergency food assistance from social service agencies. KTRK-TV supported the ongoing efforts of the Houston Food Bank by sponsoring our 20TH ANNUAL SHARE YOUR HOLIDAYS food drive. The one-day 12-hour drive contributed approximately $50,000 in cash and over 1,575,000 pounds of food to be donated to agencies in Houston, Bay City, Baytown, Conroe, Galveston, Katy, LaPorte, Sugar Land, Tomball, and the Richmond/Rosenberg area.

EYEWITNESS NEWS (12/3/00, 12/5/00, 12/9/00, 6:00-7:00 PM, LOCAL, 5 minutes)

Series of reports focusing on the issue of hunger in our city and how it effects senior citizens, children and families and what local charities are doing address this problem.

LIVE AT FIVE (12/14/00, 5:00-5:30 PM, LOCAL, 3 minutes)

The Houston Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association donate over a million pounds of fresh fruit and vegetables to be distribute to the Houston Food Bank as part of our annual Share Your Holidays food drive. The donation is presented in a ceremony at Enron Baseball Field where the display of fruit and vegetables is considered to be the largest gift of non-perishables every given to a local organization.

20TH ANNUAL SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS FOOD DRIVE

(12/8/00, 5 AM; 6 AM; 8:25 AM, 9:00-10:00 AM; 5 PM; 6 PM; 10 PM; CUT-INS; LOCAL, 3 hours)

LIVE coverage throughout the day of this station wide effort to collect canned goods for those less fortunate in the greater Houston-Galveston area. The primary location was HEB Pantry food store and approximately 33 additional sites in Houston and surrounding areas. Over 1,575,000 pounds of food was collected and distributed to families.

A series of public service and news announcements were broadcast daily three weeks prior to the food drive to encourage viewers to donate food.

ISSUE: ELECTION 2000

With the November elections coming up registered voters will be headed to the polls to vote for President and a number of other key local, state and county officials. There are other referendums on the ballot including the proposed basketball arena. KTRK-TV, Channel 13 broadcast segments to help inform the voters about the issues on the ballot. Also provided extensive coverage of the elections and various races.

CHANNEL 13 LOCAL DEBATE (10/14/00, 12:00-12:30 PM, LOCAL, 30 minute)

Harris county voters will have to choose someone other than Johnny Holmes for district attorney, for the first time in over 2 decades. Two candidates, defense attorney Jim Dougherty, a democrat, and chief prosecutor and Chuck Rosenthal, who won the republican primary, have vastly differing views. On this special program both candidates had an opportunity to debate their opinions regarding the death penalty and other issues of concern.

ABC 13 VOTE 2000 (10/22/00, 11:00-11:30 PM, LOCAL, 30 minute)

In less than a month Harris County voters will have their say on a proposed downtown basketball arena. Pro-arena forces gained what may be crucial momentum with formal endorsements from the NAACP and the Houston Area Urban League and opponents against the arena discuss why the arena will be too costly to taxpayers.

ELECTION 2000 (11/7/00, EYEWITNESS NEWS, 10-11 PM, LOCAL, 1 hour)

Full coverage of national, state and countywide elections.

VIVA HOUSTON (12/23/00, 12:00-12:30 PM, LOCAL, 15 minutes)

A talk with community leaders exploring major community issues, social, political and educational challenges impacting Latinas. Guests included Dr. Dorothy Caram, Houston Hispanic Forum; Carol Alvarado, Mayor's Senior Executive Assistant and businesswoman and community activist Lolita Guerrero.

ISSUE: CANCER AWARENESS

According to the American Cancer Society, this year alone, approximately 87,000 people will be diagnosed with cancer and 35,000 will die. One in eight American women will get breast cancer and it is the leading cause of death, of women between the ages of 35 and 54. During this month, medical facilities and the media highlight information about early detection and treatment for breast cancer. KTRK-TV also broadcast segment with information to help children living with cancer.

WOMEN & CANCER: PREVENTION, DETECTION & SURVIVAL
(10/22/00, 1:00-2:00 PM, RECORDED, 60 minutes)

This special program covers cancers that are most prevalent among women, and takes a look at the many steps a woman can take to prevent or minimize her chances of contracting these diseases. Also covered were the courageous stories of women and their families who are struggling to find a cure for this disease.

"BREAST CANCER AWARENESS/INTERNET CHAT LINE"
(10/26/00, 7:00-8:00 PM, LOCAL, 60 minutes)

ABC 13 in conjunction with Obstetrical & Gynecological Associates (a physicians group) hosted a Breast Cancer chat line via ABC 13 website. Through a series of public service announcements that ran for 2 weeks, women were invited to log on to the website and talk with health professionals about early detection and prevention of breast cancer. There were more than 100 visitors to the chat room. In addition to the psa's, there were news mentions and news coverage.

CROSSROADS (12/16/00, 12:30-1:00 PM, LOCAL, 5 minutes)

Interview with Shannon Murray, Director of the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center Children's Art Project to talk about a display beautiful scarves, all-occasion cards, bags and aprons designed by young cancer patients who receive treatment from the center. Proceeds from the sale of these items benefit M.D. Anderson college scholarships and summer camps for cancer patients. The project, now in its 27th year, has allocated more than $12.7 million to M.D. Anderson Cancer Center programs.
